

The LPIC-3 Program

LPIC-3: “Core” Exam and Certification

LDAP, PAM and related technologies

Capacity Planning

Trouble Shooting

Core Network Services

301

*Authentication and naming,
including: troubleshooting,
integration with core network
services, and capacity
planning.*

The First LPIC-3 Specialty: LPI-302 (Mixed Environment)

Samba, NFS
and related technologies

Trouble Shooting

Core Network Services

302

*Network file/print/domain services, including:
troubleshooting, and
integration with core network
services.*

LPIC-3 Schedule and Progress

- Over 400 exam questions created in total
- 12 sites worldwide were chosen to host “beta” exam labs with 374 candidates attending these exam labs
- JTA and Objective creation complete, weighting calculated during psychometrics
- Live publication of LPIC-3 in English and Japanese

Level 3
Exams Live

LPIC-3 Comments from Beta testing

“Good that the exam is finally here to prove in depth knowledge. I hope there will be many more exams at this level.”

- Sander von Vugt, Author of “The Definitive Guide to SUSE Linux Enterprise Server”

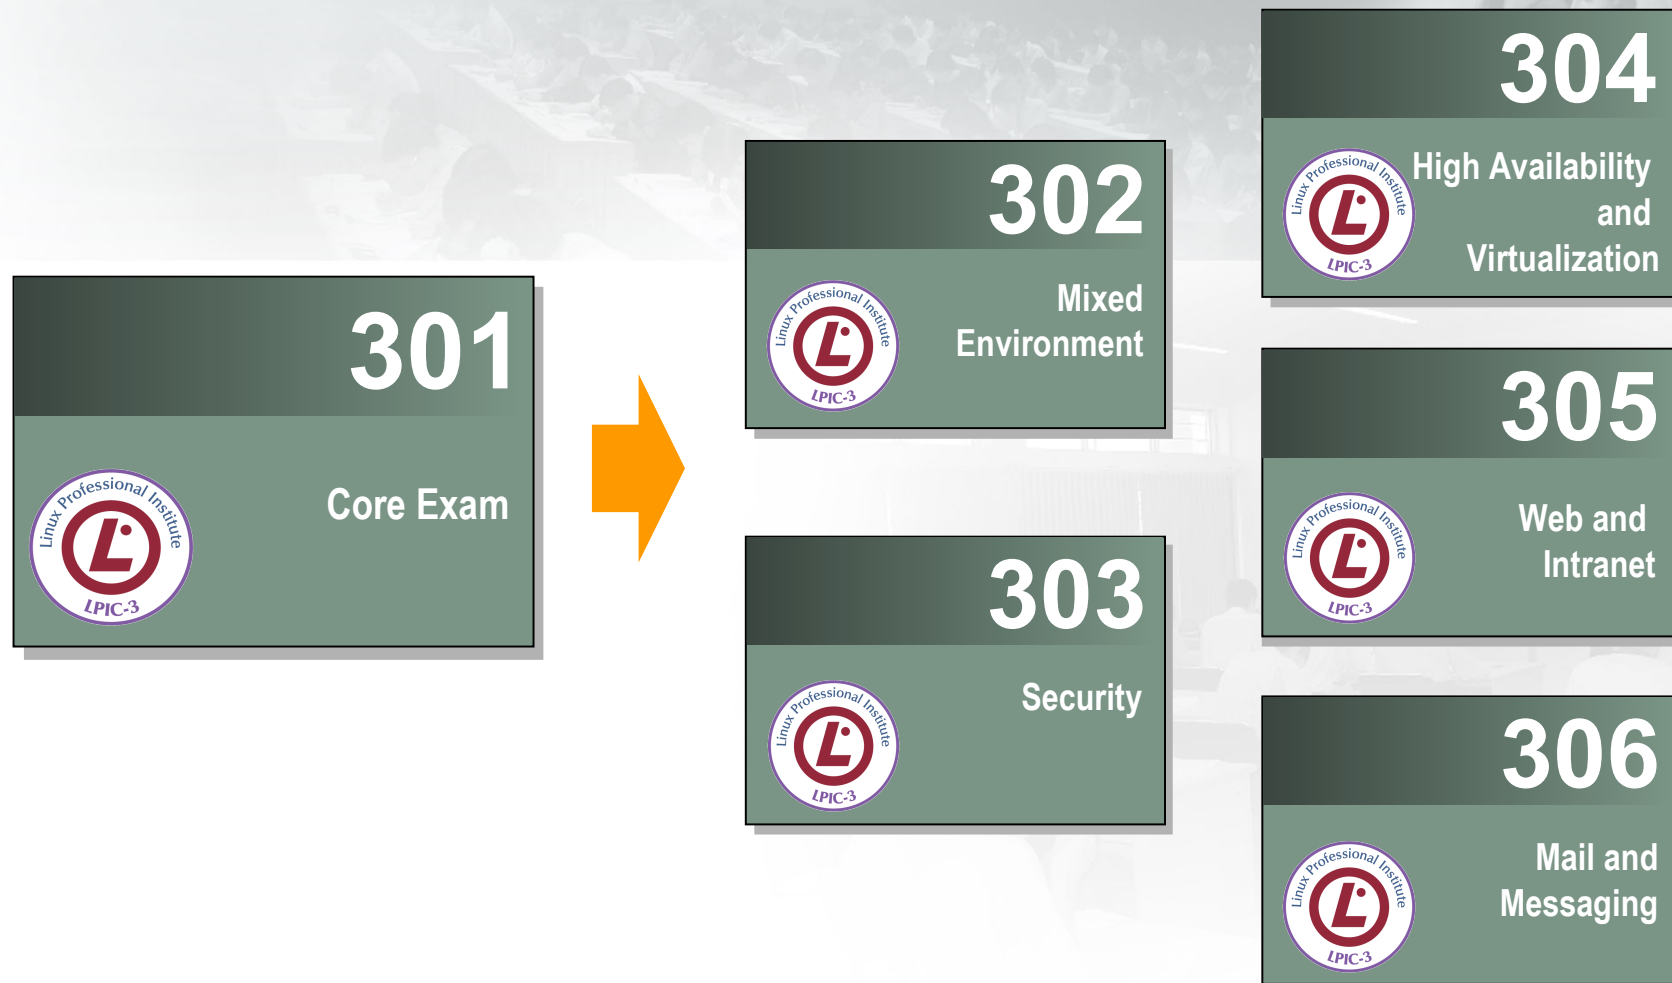

“Representative of an active and enterprise environment.”

- Raimond Kollman, Senior Consultant, Snow B.V.

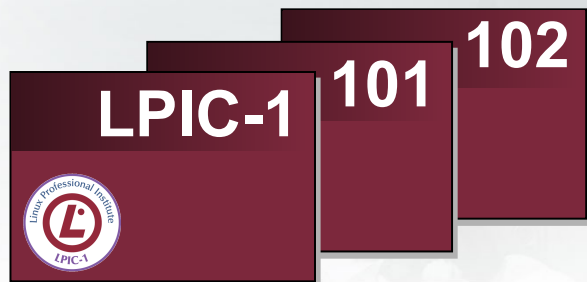

“This may be the first certification willing to take on the depth and breadth of enterprise level computing.”

- Leo Hordijk, 2005 Novell Certified Linux Engineer of the Year

Proposed LPIC- 3 Exam Program

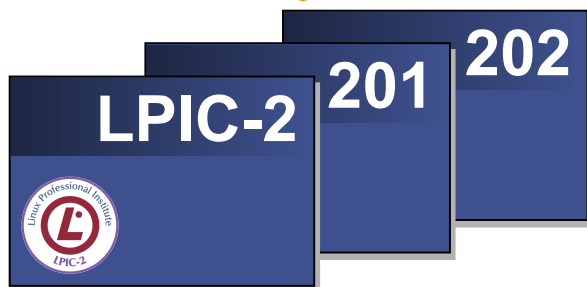

LPIC-3 and the LPIC Program

Associated Certifications

- Ubuntu Certified Professional
- Other Linux distributions

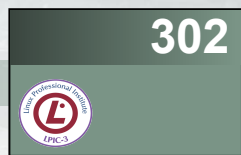

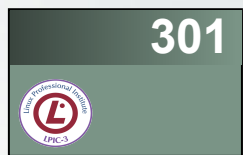

- Other Linux and Open Source Technologies

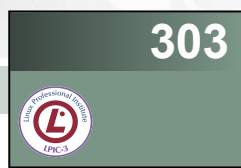

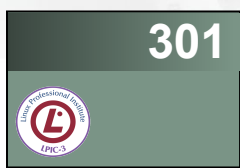

- LPIC-3 + Elective Specialty

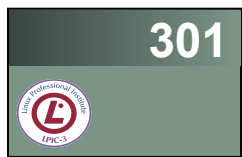

Proposed LPIC-3 Specialties

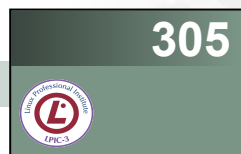

LPIC-3 Specialty:
Mixed Environment

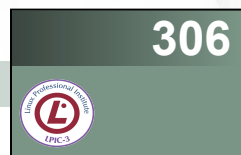

LPIC-3 Specialty:
Security

LPIC-3 Specialty:
High Availability & Virtualization

LPIC-3 Specialty:
Web & Intranet

LPIC-3 Specialty:
Mail and Messaging